SEEKING NEW CAPITAL.

AFFAIRS OF THE AMERICAN CASUALTY AND SECURITY COMPANY.

WELL-KNOWN BUSINESS MEN MAY REORGANIZE IT-RECEIVER FOR THE AMERICAN STEAM

BOILER INSURANCE COMPANY. The investigation which recently has been made concerning the affairs of the American Casualty Insurance and Security Company will result un doubtedly in detaching from any connection with the company those elements mainly held responsible for the present condition of it. It is said to e the intention of those who are now at work to reorganize the concern and to put it upon a substantial basis, to get rid as quickly as possible of every one who has had to do with bringing about the troubles which the company has experienced. It is believed that there will be no difficulty in securing all the capital required to carry on the business of this company successfully as soon as this is done. It was learned yesterday that the prospects of securing the necessary capital were excellent, and that the full amount might be subcribed within a short time. James F. Pierce, the Superintendent of the Insurance Department, declared yesterday that everything which he had done was in the interest of the innocent stockholders, and that he would wait until all effort had been made to reorganize the company before doing anything officially. "Certain nen will have to go, however," he added. Mr. Pierce raid that he believed that when his course in relation to this company was fully un

Mr. Pierce said that he believed that when his course in relation to this company was fully understood his actions would be commended instead of criticised. It is admitted that the affairs of the company had been badly managed, and at the request of some of its stockholders General Henry W. Slocum, backed by such men as John E. Searles, Mr. Flagler, Felix Campbell, of Brooklyn, and Mr. White, of Cleveland, and others, agreed to undertake its reorganization, if after a thorough examination of its affairs it should be deemed advisable to do so; and for this examination the services of Mr. Yaiden, an accountant of acknowledged ability, were obtained.

Mr. Yaiden is proceeding with his work. Mr. Pierce believes he is using a wise discretion for the benefit of policy-holders and stockholders alike in giving to men of such high standing in the community a reasonable time to complete their plans and put the company's affairs on a thoroughly sound basis. It is easy for the Superintendent of Insurance by hasty or ill-considered action to injure and perhaps ruin the interests of innocent policy-holders and stockholders. The company has £50,000 on deposit with the insurance Department at Albany, and £50,000 with other State departments. If, on Mr. Yalden's report, the men named do not think it advisably to go on with the reorganization, then Mr. Piace will take such action as the law directs for the protection of policy-holders.

Judge Andrews, in the Supreme Court yesterday appointed Thomas F. Powers, a New-York business man, receiver for the American Steam Boller Insurance Company. This company was appointed on the application of the Attorney-General, who was asked to do so by some of the stockholders of the American Steam Boller Insurance Company. The Tribune alteredy has published the affidavits of some of the stockholders, giving their grounds for asking for the appointment of a receiver. The receiver was required to give a bond in the sum of $50,000, and the United States Trust Company was made the depository of the

A YOUNG ENGINEER KILLS HIMSELF IN SPITE OF HIS WIFE'S ENDEAVORS TO PREVENT HIM.

Crazed by loss of employment, John M. Schirmer a young engineer, committed suicide early yesterday morning by dropping down the airshaft from the fifth story of the tenement-house No. 431 East Ninth-st. Schirmer was married a year ago to Mary Lauenbach, and they went to live on the to-floor of the house in Ninth-st. At that time Schir mer was earning good wages, and the young couple were happy and hopeful. A quarrel with his broth er-in-law, who held a position above him in the shop where they both were employed, led to Schir mer's discharge several months and. The coming of a baby to the home several weeks ago did not make Schirmer happier, but rather more miserable, because he had again lost his work more miserable, because he had again lost his workHe worried over his trouble until he became demented. Last week he tried to kill himself by chewing the ends of matches. His wife watched him closely to prevent him from injuring himself after that. On Saturday Schirmer's brother-in-instarted to take him to Believue Hospital for examination, but Schirmer ran away from him and went back home.

At 2 a. m. yesterday, when Mrs. Schirmer, worn by long watching, fell into a doze, her husband left his bed and opened the window that was in the airshaft. She was awakened by the noise, and

PARK COMMISSIONERS ASK ONLY $5,000 NOV FOR THE MARLEM SPEEDWAY.

Park Commissioner Dana gained a point yeste Park Board regarding the Harlem River Speedway The board yesterday withdrew its request to Con-troller Myers for the issue of $1,000,000 in bonds for the construction of the section of the proposed edway south of Highbridge. The Commissioner have modified their demand, and now ask for only, for the expenses of the preparation of the plans for the northerly section. The reason given is that the work of construction cannot begin until next spring. But it is also said that the city authorities are getting ready to call a halt on exditures which are not absolutely necessary. The estimates of the engineers indicate that

The estimates of the engineers indicate that the cost of the improvement will largely exceed the original supposition. The whole speedway, it was thought at first, could be built for $1,500,000. But it is found that the lawer section alone, which is considerably less than half the work, will cost not less than $1,000,000.

It is considered doubtful if the Controller would have issued the bonds now, as he is strongly impressed with Mr. Dana's argument for a sidewalk on the river side of the drive.

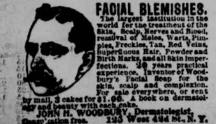

Long-standing illness was believed to have caused suicide of Dr. Henry Stock, a retired druggist, sixty-four years old, in his home, on the second floor of the house No. 349 Seventh-ave. His family there consisted of his wife, his son Henry, a teacher, and two daughters. Dr. Stock was a New-Yorker by birth, and before the Civil War he was druggist's clerk. He went to the war and fought for a time in Sherman's army, and also served as an assistant surgeon in the Navy. After the war he started in business for himself, and for a score of years he was proprietor of the drug store He took an interest in Grand Army matters, and

He took an interest in Grand Army matters, and was a member of Koltes Post. Seven years ago he sold his drug business to Oscar Kraus. He had been suffering with liver complaint, and he was not well enough to carry on the business longer himself.

Dr. Stock was a chronic sufferer, and he became despondent. On Monday afternoon he was left alone in the rooms which the family occupied. When his wife returned and saw him apparently asleep in an easy cnair, she thought she would not disturb him, and set about getting supper for the family. Her son found the old man dead in the chair later. Dr. Stock had shot himself in the head with a revolver that lay on the floor beside the chair, and doubtless had killed himself instantly. The family did not inform the police of the suicide until yesterday morning, when it became necessary to have a coroner's certificate for the burial of the body.

LIBERIA URGED TO RESIST FRANCE.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, held in this city yesterday, the question of the present condition of affairs in the Liberian Republic was taken up. The Board has a large number of missionaries in that country, and is fearful that the encroachments of France on the Liberian coast, as projected in the treaty before the Liberian coast, as projected in the treaty before the Liberian Senate, will work harm to the re-public and to the missions. In connection with the matter, the following minute was adopted: "The Board took under consideration the ap-peal of the Liberian Republic for the moral support of the American people, and by the Govern-ment of the United States, in its resistance to the threatened encroachments of the French upon the territory long recognized as belonging to Liberia, and the Executive Council was instructed to comterritory joing recognized as belonging to Laberia, and the Executive Council was instructed to communicate to the Secretary of State the gratification of the Board at the action of our Government in advising the Liberian Republic to refuse to approve the treaty now before the Liberian Senate yielding to the unjust claims of the French Government. The Board would respectfully urge that our Government give the Liberian Government such further support as shall enable it, though weak, to resist the continued aggression of France."

THE CREW OF A WRECKED BARK RESCUED BY THE MEXICAN PRINCE.

HOPE'S BEACONS FLASHED TROUGH STORM AND DARRNESS WHILE THE STEAMER WAITED FOR DAYLIGHT-A GOOD RECORD

The steamship Mexican Prince, which arrived here yesterday from Cardiff, by way of Delaware Breakwater, brought into port the rescued crew of the Norwegian bark Helene. The Helene had the unucky number 13 in her crew, and the storm in which she was wrecked began on November 12 The bark sailed from Halifax for Cardiff on November 6, with a cargo of deals. She was commanded by Captain Andersen, who had his wife with him. They had fine weather until November 8, when a gale set in from the Northeast. The gale creased in force, and by November 19, it was blowing a hurricane, and a tremendous sea was running. The vessel labored heavily and her seams opened. The deck load was thrown overboard to base her, and the windmill pump kept her partly While the deck load was being thrown overboard, the mate, C. H. Gulnksen, had his left ankle badly crushed.

The leak became worse constantly, however, and on Monday morning the bark was completely waterlogged. The weather bulwarks were smashed, and the main topmast and topgallantmast went by the board. The sait water got into the tanks, and for three days there was no fresh water to drink. When the crew had almost abandoned hope, at 9 o'clock on Monday morning, the steamer Mexicar Prince was sighted. Captain Andersen signalled, "I am in a sinking condition," and the steamer im-mediately stood down to him. The crew of the Helene tried to launch their remaining boat (the others had been smashed), but the sea dashed the boat against the bark's side and broke it into kind-

All night the Mexican Prince stood by, burning lights and Coston signais to cheer the people on the wreck, and the people on the wreck burned answering signals in the storm and waited impatiently for morning. At 545 in the morning Captain Denchard, of the Mexican Prince, lowered his starboard lifeboat and sent it to the wreck in charge of the third officer, Adam Leisk. The crew of the lifeboat consisted of J. C. Thompson, boatswain; G. Huron, carpenter, and Ernest Lassmond, seaman. It was a hard struggle to reach the wreck, but the boat succeeded, and brought back six of the bark's crew in safety to the steamer. In the first boat the captain's wife was taken off. She had stood her ordent well, but suffered afterward from nervous reaction.

of the somewhat remarkable case, the Rev. Dr. John Gillespie, secretary of the Board, said yesterday.

"Miss Eddy, who is an exceptionally bright girl was graduated from the Women's Medical College, in this city, last summer after having completed her course. She was determined to make the final test as to whether a female physician would be permitted by law to practise her profession in Turkey, and went to Constantinople armed with letters from Secretary of State Gresham and others high in authority. She met with nothing but rebuffs in the beginning, but the news received to-day shows that she has been successful in her purpose. It is a significant fact that the first woman permitted to practise the profession of medicine there should be an American girl. It is exceedingly difficult for any foreigners to secure a certificate authorizing them to practise medicine in Turkey. All applicants are rigidly examined by a board of examiners, who have been educated in the schools of Paris."

Dr. Eddy will soon go to Syria to take up her work.

FORCING THE SALE OF COLUMBIAN STAMPS. Postmaster Dayton has received notice from the all orders for postage stamps will be filled with all orders for postage stamps will be filled with the Columbian stamps exclusively. As the stock at the New-York Postoffice of 2-cent stamps of the ordinary issue is entirely exhausted, none of that denomination and issue can be purchased, and there is only a small supply of 1-cent stamps of the old fesue, which will be sold to all desiring them until the supply is exhausted. There is a sufficient number of ordinary stamps of other denominations to fill all demands. After January 1 no more Columbian stamps will be issued by the Postoffice Department.

ANOTHER NEW-YORK FIRM'S VICTORY. Chicago, Nov. 21,-The beautiful collection of etchings, engravings and other works of art exhibited by Messra Fishel, Adler & Schwartz, publishers, of New-York, has recaged the highest award, consisting of a medal and diploma.

On Saturday evening next, November 25, at the Central Opera House, Sixty-seventh-st., near Third-ave., the second entertainment and reception will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevo-lent Society, "Gates of Hope." The affair is a lent Society, "Gates of Hope." The affair is a purely charitable one, and among the prominent artists who have offered their services are Miss. Harriett Vernon, who will make her last appearance in America on this occasion; Miss Ada Reeve, Mile. Edmee Lescot, Mile. Paguerette, Evans and Luxmore, the Troupe Tortajada (Spanish troubadors), Dr. Summer's Hungarian Gypsy Band and others. Tickets may be had from the members of the society, and at the box office of the Central Opera House.

A wish has often been expressed by the patrons and passengers of the North German Lloyd Steam ship Company that the fast express steamers of the Mediterranean Line of this company should stop at the Azores on their voyage to Gibraitar. The fast express steamer Spree, sailing on Tuesday, January 16, will stop at the port of Ponta Del Gada, on San Miguel Island, Azores. Owing to the position of the islands between the north branch and the south branch of the Gulf Stream, the temperature there is so equable that the difference between the mean temperature of summer and winter is only 10 or 15 degrees.

AUGUSTUS COOK SUED FOR DIVORCE. HE AND HIS WIFE WERE MEMBERS OF THE LYCEUM COMPANY-MISS HALL NAMED AS CO-RESPONDENT.

Howe & Hummel filed a notice in the Superior Court yesterday that they would make a motion for alimony and counsel fees on November 27 in a suit brought by Annie Cook for separation from her husband, Augustus Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Cook have both been members of Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Stock Company, Mr. Cook being still in the com sany. Miss Evelyn Lollita Hall, a daughter of William H. Hall, a sash and blind manufacturer, who lives at No. 227 Lenex-ave., is named co-respondent. Miss Hail became acquainted with Mr. Cook at the Lyceum School of Acting, where he was a tutor in 1892 and she a pubil.

Mrs. Cook says in her complaint that she was married to Cook in Providence, R. L. on April 27, 1891. Miss Hall, who adopted the name of Beatrice Howe, became infatuated with Cook, it is alleged, and he introduced her to his wife.

Last January Mrs. Cook became ill. Miss Hall called upon her. It happened to be Mr. Cook's birthday and Miss Hall brought him a handsome cardase as a present. Miss Hall, it is alleged, pabl more attention to Mr. Cook than to Mrs. Cook. The Lyceum company went on the road last April, Mr. and Mrs. Cook both being in the company. Mr. Cook received many letters from Miss Hall, so Mrs. Cook alleges. Mrs. Cook remonstrated, and Mr. Cook told her to get a divorce and then he would marry Miss Hall.

her to get a divorce and then he would marry Miss Hall.

Last July Mr. and Mrs. Cook went West with the Lyceum company. They got back to Boston in October, where Cook finally deserted his wife, telling her that he would live with her no longer. Afterward Mrs. Cook found letters in her husband's trunk writen to him by Miss Hall. Two of them are appended to the complaint. They are written in the extreme language of affection. Miss Hall begins one "My own darling Gus," and skins it "Eve." The second is a jealous denunciation of Mrs. Cook, couched in profane language.

Mrs. Cook is now flying at No. 317 East Forty-first-st. She says that she is destitute and out of employment. The defendant has a salary of $15 at week. Mrs. Cook says that Miss Hall is ready to furnish $10.000 to her husband to start a company of his own. Mrs. Cook has also begun suit against Miss Hall for alienation of her husband's affections.

At all times should a sick person have the best of care. At no time should more be exercised than during the period of recoverythe time of convalescence.

Strength is needed then. That is given by the food eaten, that is if it digests well. Notice how the doctor inquires about how the food agrees with the patient. Agrees means digests, The genuine JOHANN HOFF'S Malt Extract helps digestion; is so palatable. That's the reason so frequently the only malt extract given is JOHANN HOFF's. It invigorates and tones without exciting the system. A very refreshing beverage. Insist upon the genuine.

See that signature "JOHANN HOFF" is on the neck Elsner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents, 152 and 154 evening the Rev. John B. Devins, the pastor of the chapel in East Fourth-st., will preach.

A. R. CONKLING PRODUCES EVIDENCE OF THE STEAL BEFORE THE CANVASSING BOARD

-TO GO BEFORE THE GRAND JURY. The Aldermen, acting as a board of county can-assers, got through the XXVIth Assembly District last night, and expect to complete the canvass to-day. The official result may be announced to-morrow. The expected protest from Otto Irving Republican candidate for Assembly in the XXIst District, was not received. Henry B. Page filed his protest yesterday against certifying the election of his opponent, Michael F. Tobin, Tammany candidate for Assembly in the XXIId Dis-trict. Mr. Page alleged that Tobin, being a city employe, is ineligible to election as an Assembly

The election inspectors of the Ninth Election District of the Hd Assembly District and of the Eighth Election District of the VIIIth Assembly District were summoned before the Committee on Eighth Election District of the VIIIth Assembly District were summoned before the Committee on Contests yesterday to explain discrepancies and frauds charged by ex-Assemblyman Alfred R. Conkling, the Republican counsel. Mr. Conkling's charges were supported by a number of affidavits, which he laid before the committee. The policier's tallysheets in the first-named district showed fifty-seven votes cast for Edward T. Bartlett for Justice of the Court of Appeals. The inspectors returned only twenty-seven votes for Bartlett, showing a deliberate steal of thirty votes. As to the district in the VIIIth where only twelve votes were returned for Bartlett and none for the Prohibition candidate. Mr. Conkling produced affidavits from twenty electors, nineteen of whom swore that they had voted for Bartlett, and one that he had voted the Prohibition ticket. When interrogated by Mr. Conkling, the inspectors stub-tornly asserted that they had made correct returns, and, under Tammany coaching, refused to make alterations.

Mr. Conkling then addressed Chairman McClellan and asked him to order the inspectors to correct the returns and certify the votes as they were cast. This Colonel McClellan refused to do, on the ground that the duties of the Ceunty Cancassers were purely ministerial, and that they were not empowered to correct or change the vote as returned by the inspectors. He also declined to accept the affidavits as evidence of error or fraud.

Mr. Conkling said that he would bring the cases before the Grand Jury summoned to inquire into the stupendous election frauds committed in this

MRS. HENDERSON CAUGHT AT LAST.

AFTER TWO YEARS OF EFFORT LEGAL PAPERS ARE SERVED ON HER. AND SHE MAY HAVE TO PAY FOR THOSE BONNETS.

resisted being served with legal papers for two years. The many ruses known to process-servers were attempted in vain, until recently a lawyer's bright clerk hit upon an original idea, and up a card, bearing the name of a clubman. Mrs. Henderson said unpleasant things when up walked the process-server and insisted on her accepting her case, and then followed a storm of legal papers, summoning her to show cause why she should not be punished for contempt of court in refusing to appear before Judge Erhitch, in the City Court, and be examined in supplementary proceedings instituted by E. B. Halsey, of No. 235 Fifth-ave. Through his lawyer, Julius Lehman, Mrs. Henderson had purchased some pretty bonnets from Mme. Halsey, in December, 1889, and did not settle for them, and Mme. Halsey resorted to the law. Then followed the trials of the process-servers.

Mr. Flynn appeared before Judge Fitzsimons in the City Court yesterday, and argued a motion to set aside the original contempt proceedings, on the ground that his client did not receive the order to appear for examination as a judgment debtor. er case, and then followed a storm of legal pa debtor.

Mr. Lehman read an affidavit, reciting the various attempts to serve Mrs. Henderson, who is named in his affidavit as "Harriet" Henderson, the name "Harriet" being fictitious, and her real Christian name being unknown to the plaintiff. The facts are interesting, as showing how it is possible for a woman living in a public hotel to successfully clude service for two years. The Court took the papers and reserved decision.

FUNERAL OF THE REV. DR. C. F. DEEMS.

PASTOR-BURIAL AT NEW DORP. S. I. The body of the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Deems the venerable pastor of the Church of the Strangers, lay in state from 10 a. m. to 12 m. yescloth, but was plainly ornamented, Around it were many elaborate and costly floral tributes. At 12 o'clock the church was filled to its utmost capacity, and hundreds who were unable to obtain seats remained standing throughout the services, preceded by the Rev. Joseph Merlin Hodson, who has been acting pastor since last April, entered the church. The pallbearers, the first four of whom are officers of the church, were Dr. George W. Clarke, Jacob R. Reed, Robert L. Crawford, S. B. Downes, Cornelius Vanderbilt, John H. Inman. Dr. Andrew H. Smith, J. J. Little, William P. St. John and Theodore H. Price. The members hundred and fifth-st., with his wife, and the Rev Edward M. Deems, of Hornellsville, with his wife her husband, and five of the eleven surviving grand-children of Dr. Deems. On the platform were the Rev. Mr. Hedson, who conducted the services; the Rev. Dr. James M. Buckley, Editor of "The Christian Advocate"; the Rev. William T. Sabine, of the First Reformed Protestant Episcopal Church, who offered prayer; the Rev. Dr. Amory Brad-ford, of Montclair, N. J., who pronounced the of the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal

The Rey, Mr. Hodson cave a brief address enlogizing Dr. Deems, and announced that on account of the crowded condition of the church, which prevented many persons from attending the funeral memorial services would be held at a later date. The Rey, Dr. Buckley's funeral oration was an eloquent tribute to the preacher. Dr. Buckley said that funeral enlogiums were in harmony with Christianity if they were truthful. Dr. Deems was a patriot as a journalist, he said; a man of maryelious power as a preacher and lecturer. Had he not been called to the ministry, the doctor added, he might have become equally eminent as a lawyer or statesman.

At the close of Dr. Buckley's eulogy he announced that the Congregational Club, of this city, had adopted resolutions in memory of Dr. Deems, which he read. After the benediction there were Masonic ceremonies, at the end of which, accompanied only by the family and palibearers, the body was taken to New-Dorp, Staten Island, where it was buried in Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 21 (Special).-The Unt to-day in honor of Dr. Charles F. Deems, who was to-day in honor of Dr. Charles F. Deems, who was formerly professor of rhetoric here. Dr. Deems recently established the Deems Fund, $15,000, to be loaned to poor students. Nearly 300 have been helped by this fund. An eloquent euloxy was pronounced by K. P. Battle, professor of history in the university, who was Dr. Deems's pupil here fifty years ago. The university choir sang "Integer vitae." Dr. Deems began his ministerial life here and he is greatly mourned by all the people of the community.

GOOD WORK OF A HOME FOR OLD PEOPLE. The Home for Old Men and Aged Couples celebrated its twenty-first birthday yesterday, and its managers held the twenty-first annual meeting at the home, which now occupies the three houses north of St. Luke's Chapel in Hudson-st. There is probably not a house in this city the interior of which resembles so much the old New-England homestead as this home with its quaint hair-covered furniture and old-fashioned ornaments

THOUGHT TO BE ILL WITH SMALLPOX.

A PRIVATE SCHOOL PUBLIC REMOVED TO THE HOSPITAL-DR. DOTY STILL AT WORK. Miss Charlotte Dobbins, eighteen years old, a pupil in the Van Norman private school, at No. 282 West Seventy-first-st., was removed to the Reception Hospital of the Health Department in East Sixteenth-st. on Monday evening when she was believed to be ill with smallpox. Her parents were said not to be residents of the city, and it was not known how she could have been exposed to smallpox, but after she had been ill in the school for two days a physician reported her case as suspicious, and she was sent to the hospital for observation. At the Bureau of Contagious Diseases

Miss Dobbins had smallpox, but he said her symptoms were so suspicious that she had been removed to the hospital, and the inspectors had been busy at the school vaccinating the people there and fumigating the rooms.

Four persons who were known to be ill with smallpox were sent to North Brother Island yesterday. They were Henry Adams, seventeen years old, of No. 98 Christopher-st., Martin Kelly, forty years old, of Springhurstave, and One-hundred-and-fifty-sixth-st.; James Sample, a homeless man who walked to Bellevie Hospital from the lodging-house at No. 190 Park Row, and Joachim Henry, sixty years old, of No. 74 Eighth-ave.

Dr. Doty and his assistants vaccinated many inmates of lodging-houses in the Fourth Ward en Monday night. Yesterday many employes in Frank Lesile's printing establishment and at Ehret's brewery were vaccinated. Employes of the elevated railroads are to be vaccinated, and the work will be begun to-day.

BANKS IN A PAINFUL SITUATION.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 21 .- A discrepancy has been discovered of over $1,090,000 between the figures given by local National banks to the Controller of the Treasury and those given to the Auditor for taxation. The law requires each of the National banks to file with the County Auditor every year a complete and attested statement of its financial condition. The figures are then listed by the Auditor at the 60 per cent rate. The discrepancies in figures occur in statements of surplus and undivided profits. The statements to the Controller were made on May 3, and to the Auditor on May 4, 183, Some of them are as follows: Western Reserve National Bank—to the Controller, 384,507,167, to the Auditor, $50,684,32; a discrepancy of $44,481,41. The discrepancy of the Union National is $28,192,88; City National, $38,08,38; National Bank of Commerce, $22,154,88; Mercantile National, $117,496,95; First National, $88,242,94; Commercial National, $49,252,57; Cleveland National, $198,33,98; Euclid Avenue National, $70,695,77. No explanation is given except the difference of one day in dates. covered of over $1,000,000 between the figures given
